BASSETT & CO.

Blosser Benefit Nov. 8.

As the tickets for the Benefit concert to be given to Mr. Clarence Blosser at the opera house Friday evening, Nov. 8th, are selling in numbers far exceeding anticipation, there is no doubt but that the benefit will be an assured success.

The program in progress is a most attractive one and a special feature will be the contribution of Prof. and Mrs. Pooler, of S. Ky. College. Mrs. Pooler possesses a clear, sweet and remarkably flexible voice, and her selection on the occasion will display her fine execution.

Mr. Blosser and a younger brother will appear several times, giving a variety of solos on the cornet and slide trombone. This latter one of the most difficult instruments managed, especially by such a lad, for the lad is but thirteen years old.

Tickets 50 cents, with no extra charge for reserved seats. Parties holding tickets can exchange same at Mr. Galbreath's for reserved seats without extra charge, on and after Nov. 8th, when they will also be on sale. Do not fail to attend concert Nov. 8.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers, and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions of men with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Tax Notice.

A penalty of 6 per cent will be added to all unpaid taxes for the year 1895, on December 1, 1895, and the only way to avoid it is to pay the taxes before that date. Tax payers are reminded that I cannot affix this penalty, and then wait on them for their tax. I will collect the tax due before Jan. 1, 1896, if I have to levy and sell for it.

An October Wedding.

The trees were dressed in gorgeous robes of autumn beauty as we wended our way to the little country church Hebron on last Wednesday, Oct. 30th, to be present at the marriage of Dr. P. E. West, of Logan county, and Miss Ethel Duke. The church was handsomely decorated by the ladies of Hebron, who are proverbial not only for their good taste and skill but many other excellent qualities. Promptly at 3 o'clock, as the sweet strains of the wedding march, evoked by the skillful touch of Miss Follansby, the accomplished music teacher of Bethel Female College, fell upon our ears the wedding party entered the church.

It was preceded by the ushers, Messrs Robert West and Charles Duke, who took their places on the right and left of the altar railing. Next came the sixteen year-old sister of the bride, Miss Mattie Duke, who was maid of honor, and Mr. Henry Ferguson, of Logan county, who was the groom's best man. These were followed by the bride and groom, who were both handsomely attired.

As they passed beneath the arch of bright hued autumn leaves, the Rev. T. V. Joiner stepped forward, and in an impressive manner read the beautiful ceremony of the M. E. Church, and these two young lives were joined together for all eternity. Dr. H. C. Settle concluded with a fervent prayer and doubtless there was a sincere amen in every heart. The bride carried in her hand an exquisite bouquet of Bride roses and Maiden Hair ferns. The maid of Honor one of double white Chrysanthemums and ferns, while the groom, his best man and the ushers wore pure white Carnations with fern leaf.

After many good wishes and congratulations had been extended, the bridal party was driven to the L. & N. depot, where the bride and groom took the train for Ferguson Station, their present home.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. C. G. Duke, who resides near this city. She is connected with some of the best families of Northern Kentucky and comes of good old Virginia ancestry. Both of her grandfathers, Mr. John C. Duke and Rev. Henry J. Evans, were born and reared in the Old Dominion.

Dr. West is a young man of prepossessing appearance and much ambition. He graduated with honor at Vanderbilt University several years ago and is rapidly rising in his profession.

May no breakers arise on the matrimonial sea of this young couple, and may sunshine and prosperity be theirs through life.
